The Case

The owner faced with low booking, approaching us to resolve the problem. Our visit identified the problems. Our studio fully restyled the flat, combining aesthetics and strategic choices to better integrate with the environment.

Results

Within 2 weeks of a new ad, the apartment was full for three months. Rates increased by 50-90%, enabling the owner to recover his investment within a month. Airbnb stats confirm the success of the rebranding, restyling and management after 7 years.
